CITY MOURNED NATION'S LOSS

Scenes of Wild Excitement and Sorrow.

ous people.

The extra served to confirm the earlier telegrams, and from that hour unial after midnight the thirst of the bubble for information was pathetic, At noon came a message over the Oreson Short Line wires to Vice President Bancroft. It stated that the chief executive had passed away. Many accepted this as authentic, and on a number of buildings the flag was placed at half mast.

Excited and Tearful Crowds.

For fifty minutes Salt Lake labored under the impression that the executive had crossed the dark river. Then came a denial, and from that time on the fundreds of excited, almost tearful people in front of The Herald office awaited the tidings which all knew must come. From moment to moment they looked for the end.

The daylight died away, the dinner are came and vent, forgotten. Still bulletins told that the president was alive and gave meager details of the pitfful scenes around his bedside. There were dozens of bulletin readers who clung desperately, defiantly to the hope of his ultimate recovery. They refused to believe it was possible for the chief they loved and honored to pass away in spite of all that modern surgery could do for his relief.

But even on the over-sanguine ones depression gradually crept. It he night advanced and approaching dissolution became more manifest, horror at the crime and disgust for the criminal were more in evidence. Fierce oaths were used and there is little doubt but that Agreement Between San Pedro and Short Line Officials.

CONFERENCE IS HELD

SAN PEDRO GRANTS THE SHORT LINE'S REQUEST.

reached yesterday between Senator W. A. Clark, Vice President T. E. Gibbon more, representing the San Pedro road, and Judge W. D. Cornish, vice presimore, representing the San Pedro road, and Judge W. D. Cornish, vice president of the Oregon Short Line; General Counsel P. L. Williams and General Solicitor W. R. Kelly of the Union Pacific, representing the Short Line, the hearing of the Nevada grade cases has been postponed thirty days. The testimony of a number of witnesses will be taken in Salt Lake next week before an examiner. This applies to the cases before the land office and before Judge Hawley in the federal court. Senator Clark and Mr. Gibbon arrived in the city from Butte yesterday morning and the senator spent nearly the entire day after his arrival in conferences. The representatives of both sides met in a room at the Knutsford and went over the situation. he Short Line representatives said that a large amount of data prepared for the attorneys by the engineering department had been destroyed in the fire. This was being replaced as rapidly as possible, but the attorneys would be greatly hampered if the issues were joined in court next week, as previously set. The San Pedro representatives said they wished to take no unfair advantage of their opponents and would agree to a continuance, provided none of their rights were surrendered. The rest of the time was spent in arranging the details of this agreement, the final conference beginning at 9 o'clock last evening.

Will Continue Grading.

Will Continue Grading.

It was agreed that the San Pedro It was agreed that the San Pedro should have the right to go ahead with its grading, the Short Line being allowed the same privilege on certain portions of the survey. The case before the register of the land office, involving the title to the grade, set for Sept. 16, will be postponed until Oct. 16, and the injunction suit before Judge Hawley will be taken up Oct. 20, instead of Sept. 20. The taking of testimony of witnesses before the examiner will begin Monday. This was readily agreed to by both sides to save trouble, time and expense. Each side has a dozen or more witnesses who can be examined readily now without waiting for the general hearing, and a number of them are in the city.

Quarters for Short Line. Quarters for Short Line.

Temporary quarters for the Oregon Short Line have been secured in the High school building. A six months' lease was taken on this building vesterday and work was immediately commenced fitting it up for occupancy. The various offices which have been scattered by the fire will be gathered again under one roof. It is hoped that the departments will be able to occupy their new quarters by Monday. The question of permanent quarters for the offices has not yet been decided.

TRAFFIC OFFICIALS RETURN. Schumacher and Reeves Called Back

From Chicago. and General Freight Agent J. A. Reeves of the Oregon Short Line returned yesterday from the conference of Harriman traffic officials in Chicago. Both said nothing of great public importance had developed at the meeting.

"We met simply to have a general discussion of traffic affairs and to compare notes on advertising," said Mr. Schumacher. "I do not look for any change in rates as a result of the conference. As for the advertising, Utah will certainly receive no less attention and General Freight Agent J. A.
